acceptable.

The drum pads can be activated by hitting with fingers or drumsticks and there is excellent acoustic buffering between them so the pad next consists of a four-bar, 16-beat measure. The memories can, in playback mode, be switched from one to another or played in a manual sequence but they cannot be chain linked as in the Drumatix and Linndrum.

for laughs. Interestingly enough it's available before the New Year only through Harrods, Selfridges and the London Rock Shop and thereafter in major department stores. Synsonics are definitely go.
